The Know Nothing State Convention of New York, which has just adjourned, as all others have done before it, overlooked the wise admonition that "brethren should dwell together in unity."

The house was divided against itself. A portion of the delegates of ultra Freesci affinities bolted from the Convention, and repudialed Fillmore and Donelson. At best, if the remarks he publishes have been in the free States; they know better than that; nor really made, they furnish no evidence of party strength, upon which any sensible man would rely. The story told yesterday about a merchant and East, who had been deceived by his party organs into making bets on Buchanan's carrying New York, and acknowledging that Buchanau would be beaten one hundred thousand votes in that State, we believe to be an unadulterated invention. We are well satisfied that no Democratic merchant, or any other person in this city, has made such a bet. We know that large bets have advice the organ to say nothing more about the East, who had been decrived by his party organs gold. If his party should happen to believe him, into making buts on Buchanan's carrying New made such a bet. The King Gets Married.

In the l'olynesian of the 21st, we find a long account of the marriage of Kamehameha to Miss Rooke, a grand-daughter of theflate John Young, from which we make the following extracts:

The read from the Palace gates to the church was laid down with rushes, and lined with sel-diery, and beaind them spectators; for the edifice could only contain a fraction of those who wented to see the sight. Shortly before gleven pictock, the cortego of the bride, consisting feevers corriags, with grooms at the horses' hears, favors and all that belonging to the occasion, passed by the currence of her fullers heme, when the roys, are more with his train of conjugate collections. grow, with his train of equipages, gallantly dusted out, and the two companies coalescing, passed on their way. On each side of the carriage were carried gay kahilis, of all ornaments the most national and the most becoming in a procession. The Prince shared with his brother a seat in the arrival card the convention of the control of seriage, and the rest of the company followed au escort, preceding and closing up the proces

As the King issued from the palace gate the firing of a royal salute was commenced, and dur-ing the passage to the church, a ceremony com-mon caough in old times, but which few now among us have seen before, was observed. The socialers by order, and a great part of the spectators, from a feeling of spentaneous loyalty, prestrated themselves till their foreheads touched the ground. The Hulumanus divesting themselves of their outergarments, threw them under the horses ceremony, and, if anything, rendered it mere im-posing, each promise being doubly made.

His Majesty appeared in full uniform; and the bride's dress chered unmistakable evidence of ils Parisian origin. Nothing could have been more clegant, or have better suited her fairy-like proortions. The robe was of white silk, heavy and lustrous, with three flounces richly embroidered.

R. CAVANAUGH'S "PILE SALVE" is the first and only specific ever offered to the public for the Piles. In all their forms and stages; curing all cases by external application only. Besides, it is an American remedy, with merits equal to its paternity, and does not need the "foreign and or ornament" to attest its qualities.

Try it, those who have need of it, and if not superior to all others ever advertised to care all diseases, and the Piles into the bargain, be so good as not to buy any more; it will only be a waste of time and money, to no good end.
